

Name _____

The Wave

1. What is the motto of The Wave?

2. Identify three positive aspects of The Wave?

-
-
-

3. Why does Mr. Ross allow Robert to become his bodyguard?

 4. What impact do Lori's articles have on the high school?

5. How does Mr. Ross end The Wave?

6. Discuss the influence that Mr. Ross and The Wave have on Robert. Be specific.

7. What are two social messages or themes that are communicated through the film?

-
-

“The Children’s Story”

1. What propaganda techniques are used in “The Children’s Story”?
2. Whose responsibility is the raising of children – the parents or the state? Explain your answer.
3. Consider the brainwashing tactics used in both selections. How are they alike? How are they different? Which is more effective? Why?
4. What is the message or “moral of the story” in the two selections? What are we supposed to learn from the two experiences? Be specific and complete in your response.
5. Is either of the selections similar to Animal Farm? If so, which one? Both? Explain your response using specific examples.